According to the laws of Oklahoma, a woman considering an abortion has the right to be fully informed. Except in the case of a medical emergency, not less than 72 hours prior to the performance of an abortion, the following information is to be provided to the woman by the physician who is to perform the abortion, or a referring physician, or an agent of either physician, by phone or in person:

- Name of the physician who will perform the abortion.
- The medical risks associated with the particular abortion procedure to be employed.
- The probable gestational age of the unborn child at the time the abortion is to be performed.
- The medical risks associated with carrying her child to term.
- Availability of free ultrasound imaging and heart tone monitoring facilities.
- The father is liable to assist in the support of her child.
- That medical assistance benefits may be available for prenatal care, childbirth and neonatal care.

The woman considering an abortion has the option to review printed materials provided by the State Board of Medical Licensure and Supervision, which include a Resource Directory and Information Booklet. The printed materials shall be mailed to her, by a method chosen by the woman. Or she has the option to review the material via the Internet at www.awomansright.org

PATIENT EDUCATION & RESOURCES

Information Booklet

The "A Woman's Right to Know" booklet is designed to assist a woman in the information-gathering and decision-making process. This booklet contains current and medically reliable information concerning probable anatomical and physiological characteristics of the unborn child, methods of commonly used abortion procedures, medical risks commonly associated with each abortion procedure, and risks commonly associated with carrying the child to term.

Resource Directory

The Resource Directory is designed to inform a woman of the public and private agencies that are available to assist her through pregnancy, upon childbirth, and while her child is still dependent.

Both can be accessed via the internet at www.awomansright.org
